Knight Talk

Bulletin 2017-02

February 21, 2017

Greetings Council brothers and welcome to our second edition of Knight Talk in our new year of 2017. Continue to pray and thank God for our blessings brothers. Enjoy the pics.

Current and upcoming events include:

- Efforts continue on St. Anthony's new lobby refurbishment.
- Scholarship breakfast at St. Anthony's Feb. 26th following Mass.
- KC members will be leading Stations of the Cross services throughout Lent.
- 2017 Annual Italian Dinner fundraiser May 20th.

Young Rennie Pelkie takes aim at a free throw at the annual Knights of Columbus free throw competition that was held February 11th on the Kalispel reservation.
