JULY PRAYER INTENTIONS

OF POPE FRANCIS:

Lapsed Christians.

That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life.

Dear Padre

JULY 9, 2017

What should Jesus look like? When people close their eyes and imagine the person of Jesus, no two images are exactly the same. Our images of Jesus are usually the result of our cultural influences and experiences. When I imagine Jesus, I often call to mind a picture of Jesus that was on one of my first holy cards. With recent archeological investigation, combined with the work of medical artists who are often called to testify as forensic witnesses in capital murder trials, and finally starting with the assumption that Jesus resembled a typical peasant from first-century Palestine, some clues may have emerged. According to experts like Richard Neave, Jesus was possibly a person with a broad peasant's face, dark olive skin, short curly hair, and a prominent nose. His height would have been on the order of 5 feet 1 inch and he would have weighed about 110 pounds. Of course, all of this is unnecessary speculation. What is important in matters of faith is not this level of detail but what is expressed and celebrated by the Church—that Jesus became man, born of the Virgin Mary, and we are all offered a share in the divinity of Christ.

PSALMS FOR THE MONTH OF JULY

The psalms for the month of July are filled with covenant language: God's initiation of unconditional love, blessings, mercy and protection — and the psalmist's response of praise, gratitude, trust, lament and supplication. This is the language of love for those who strive for an intimate and committed relationship with God. Loving-kindness (hesed) and fidelity ('emunah) are sure signs of God's covenant faithfulness, and come as an enduring and pure self-gift.

The psalmist speaks on behalf of the people's efforts to remain faithful despite hardships, temptations and doubt. Remembering God's steadfast love is a hallmark for those striving to remain faithful to their covenant; this encourages them to trust that God's promises are for all times. These psalms call us to consider our own covenant relationship with God that flows from our baptism. If we were to ponder our engagement with God lately, what would we say of our response to God's deity in our lives?

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Let all Your works give You thanks, Oh Lord, and let Your faithful ones bless You,” says the psalmist. Stewardship is this “attitude of gratitude” for the many gifts God has given us.
